

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear violation of election laws. And to air without commercials makes it clear their intentions are not honorable.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. If they are going to air the anti-Kerry documentary, then they should be forced to also air Fahrenheit 9/11. Now, that sounds fair.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
